Sen. Van Woerkom available for comment after State of the State

LANSING — Sen. Gerald Van Woerkom, R-Norton Shores, will be available for comments immediately following the State of the State address on Wednesday, Jan. 25.

The senator will be available to talk with media attending the address in the House Appropriations Room on the third floor of the State Capitol. Media will be allowed to set up equipment beforehand as the room is being reserved for media before, during and after the address.

If you are unable to attend the address, but would like comments from the senator, please call (517) 373-1635 to set up a time to speak with him.

Van Woerkom chairs the Senate Agriculture, Forestry and Tourism Committee.
